Propét Global Limited News Release –

November 15, 2008

Propét/PedRx Footwear exhibited its A5500 coded footwear and A5512 coded insole at MedTrade show in Atlanta (October 28 to 30, 2008) and PFA Symposium in Nashville (November 6 to 8, 2008). Both trade shows attracted certified pedorthists and buyers from durable medical equipment companies across all 50 states. Propét/PedRx Footwear's unique offerings in style selections, comprehensive in-stock program, quick order processing and shipping, and valued pricing generated tremendous amount of interests from the exhibit floor. Several new styles in the therapeutic footwear product line were introduced during these two events and they all received rave reviews from customers for the perfect combination of eclectic styling and comfort features.
